

Choose another or other to complete the sentences.

1. Would you like cup of tea?
2. To be able to buy this dress, I need ten dollars.
3. We have some ways of dealing with the subject.
4. I don't like this hotel. Let's ask for .
5. I've been to France, Germany and many European countries.
6. Ask me question.
7. Forget about this issue now, we have problems.
8. I've met Sarah before, but who is the girl standing next to you?
9. I can speak two languages. One is Armenian and the is English.
10. Do you think there are species in the universe?

Choose another or other to complete the sentences.

1. I feel so tired today. Shall we meet day?
2. I am starving, can I have piece of cake please?
3. You are so selfish. You never care about people's feelings.
4. This chair is broken. Can I have please?
5. Where are the children?
6. I need five minutes to finish my lunch.
7. Do you have any ideas?
8. My new manager and I can't get on well with each nowadays.
9. I have two cars. One is black and the is white.
10. Since I was busy with some things I couldn't help you.